- I hereby agree to allow Author, Author! (AA!) to sell the above books on my behalf and they may retain 25% of the price sold (as listed above) as their consignment fee.
- I will not hold AA! responsible for copies stolen from stock—provable by AA!'s point of sales tracking system. Books deemed stolen will result in a reduction in total number of copies consigned and we do not expect any consignment monies from missing/stolen books. We will take all precautions possible to safeguard your books at all times.
- All books must have a bar code. Only 1 title per line and only 1 format per title. No more than 10 copies to start of up to 5 titles. (You need permission from AA! to consign more than 5 titles.) If stock gets low during the event, you can add copies to this document. Please see an AA! Representative to add to your agreement.
- Any books not picked up by the end of the event (Sunday noon 3/16/2025) will be considered abandoned property and disposed of at our discretion. No consignment fees are paid for sold or unsold books or if you fail to go through the checkout procedure by the end of the event.

NOTE: Do NOT just pack up your books and leave, even if you have no sales.
We pay NO consignment monies if you fail to complete this form with us at checkout.

I have read the above rules and agree to them.
